4. Nine additional meetings shall be held on the second Monday in the months of August to April inclusive.

Chairman of the Meeting

5. The person presiding at a meeting may exercise all the powers and duties of the Chairman in relation to the conduct of the meeting.

6. Where a statute, regulation or order confers functions or duties on the proper officer of the Council in the following cases, he/she shall be the Clerk:

16th July 2012
h. To keep public books, writings and papers of the Council.

Quorum of the Council

7. Three members or one-third of the total membership, whichever is the greater, shall constitute a quorum at meetings of the Council.

8. If a quorum is not present or if during a meeting the number of councillors present (not counting those debarred by reason of a declared interest) falls below the required quorum, the meeting shall be adjourned and business not transacted shall be transacted at the next meeting or on such other day as the Chairman may fix.

For a quorum relating to a committee or sub-committee, please refer to Standing Order 47.

Voting

9. Members shall vote by a show of hands or, if at least two members so request, by signed ballot.

10. If a member so requires, the Clerk shall record the names of the members who voted on any question so as to show whether they voted for or against it. Such a request must be made before moving on to the next business.

11. (1) Subject to (2) and (3) below the Chairman may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may give a casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote.

   (2) If the person presiding at the annual meeting would have ceased to be a member of the Council but for the statutory provisions which preserve the membership of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman until the end of their term of office he may not give an original vote in an election for Chairman.

   (3) The person presiding must give a casting vote whenever there is an equality of votes in an election for Chairman.

Order of Business

16th July 2012
12. At each annual meeting the first business shall be:
   a. To elect a Chairman of the Council
   b. To receive the Chairman’s declaration of acceptance of office or, if not then received, to decide when it shall be received.
   c. In the ordinary year of election of the Council to fill any vacancies left unfilled at the election by reason of insufficient nominations.
   d. To decide when any declarations of acceptance of office which have not been received as provided by law shall be received.
   e. To elect a Vice-Chairman of the Council.
   f. To appoint representatives to outside bodies.
   g. To appoint committees and sub-committees.
   h. To consider the payment of any subscriptions falling to be paid annually.
   i. To inspect any deeds and trust instruments in the custody of the Council as required; and shall therefore follow the order set out in Standing Order 15.

13. At every meeting other than the Annual Meeting the first business shall be to appoint a Chairman if the Chairman and Vice-Chairman be absent and to receive such declarations of acceptance of office (if any) and undertaking to observe the Council’s code of conduct as are required by law to be made, or if not then received, to decide when they shall be received.

14. In every year, not later than the meeting at which the estimates for the next year are settled, the Council shall review the pay and conditions of service of existing employees. (See standing Order 38, below).

15. After the first business has been completed, the order of business, unless the Council otherwise decides on the grounds of urgency, shall be as follows:
   a. To read and consider the minutes: provided that if a copy has been circulated to each member not later than the day of issue of the summons to attend the meeting, the Minutes may be considered as read.

16th July 2012
b. After consideration to approve the signature of the minutes by the person presiding as a correct record.
c. To deal with business expressly required by statute to be done.
d. To dispose of business, if any, remaining from the last meeting.
e. To receive such communications as the person presiding may wish to lay before the Council.
f. To answer questions from Councillors
g. To receive and consider reports and minutes of committees.
h. To receive and consider resolutions or recommendations in the order in which they have been notified.
i. To authorise the signing of orders for payment (This will be unnecessary if there is a finance committee).
j. To consider resolutions or recommendations in the order in which they have been notified.
k. Any other business specified in the summons. (The summons to a meeting of a Local Council must by law specify the business to be transacted; a Local Council cannot legally decide to take any action under the general heading of “any other business” because these words do not specify an item of business. The rule prevents the Council deciding any business which will have either expenditure consequences or lead the Council into a legal situation: for example by making a contract. There is no practical objection to exchanges of information under “A.O.B.” or the giving of preliminary notification of important business for next time).

16. A motion to vary the order of business on the grounds of urgency:
   a. may be proposed by the Chairman or by any member and, if proposed by the Chairman, may be put to the vote without being seconded, and
   b. shall not be put to the vote without discussion.

Resolutions Moved on Notice

17. Except as provided by these Standing Orders, no resolution may be moved unless the business to which it relates has been put on the Agenda by the Clerk or the mover has given notice in writing of its terms and has delivered notice to the Clerk at least seven clear days before the next meeting of the Council.

18. The Clerk shall date every notice of resolution or recommendation when received by him, shall number each notice in the order in which it was received and shall enter it in a book which shall be open to the inspection of every member of the Council.

19. The Clerk shall insert in the summons for every meeting all notices of motion or recommendation properly given in the order in which they have been received unless the member giving notice of motion has stated in writing that he intends to move at some later meeting or that he withdraws it.

20. If a resolution or recommendation specified in the summons is not moved either by the member who gave notice of it or by any other member, it shall, unless postponed by the Council, be treated as withdrawn and shall not be moved without fresh notice.

21. If the subject matter of a resolution comes within a province of a committee of the Council, it shall, upon being moved and seconded, stand referred without discussion to such committee or such other committee as the Council may determine for report; provided that the Chairman, if he considers it a matter of urgency, may allow it to be dealt with at the meeting at which it was moved.

22. Every resolution or recommendation shall be relevant to some question over which the Council has power or which affects its area.

Resolutions Moved Without Notice

23. Resolutions dealing with the following matters may be moved without notice:

   a. To appoint a Chairman of the meeting
   b. To correct the Minutes
   c. To approve the Minutes
   d. To alter the order of business

26. Every question shall be put and answered without discussion.

Rules of Debate

28. No discussion of the Minutes shall take place except upon their accuracy. Corrections to the minutes shall be made by resolution and must be initialled by the Chairman.

writing and handed to him before it is further discussed or put to the meeting.

b. A member when seconding a resolution may, if he then declares his intention to do so, reserve his speech until a later period of the debate.

c. A member shall direct his speech to the question under discussion or to a personal explanation or to a question of order.

d. No speech by a mover of a resolution shall exceed three minutes and no other speech shall exceed one minute except by consent of the Council.

e. An amendment shall be either:
   i. To leave out words
   ii. To leave out words and insert others
   iii. To insert or add words.

f. An amendment shall not have the effect of negating the resolution before the Council.

j. A member, other than the mover of the resolution, shall not, without leave of the Council, speak more than once on any resolution except to move an amendment or further amendment, or an amendment, or on a point of order, or in personal explanation, or to move a closure.

k. A member may speak on a point of order or a personal explanation. A member speaking for these purposes shall be heard forthwith. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by him which may have been misunderstood.

l. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without discussion, and no member may speak upon it after permission has been asked for its withdrawal unless such permission has been refused.

m. When a resolution is under debate no other resolution shall be moved except the following:
   i. To amend the resolution
   ii. To proceed to the next business
   iii. To adjourn the debate

   v. That a member named be not further heard vi. That a member named leave the meeting
   vii. That the resolution be referred to a committee

31. At the end of any speech a member may, without comment, move “that the question be now put”, “that the debate be now adjourned” or “that the Council do now adjourn”. If such a motion is seconded the Chairman shall put the motion but, in the case of a motion, “that the question be now put”, only if he is of the opinion that the question before the Council has been sufficiently debated. If the motion “that the question now be put” is carried, he shall call upon the mover to exercise or waive his right of reply and shall put the question immediately after that right has been exercised or waived. The adjournment of a debate or of the Council shall not prejudice the mover’s right of reply at the resumption.

Disorderly Conduct

16th July 2012
32. All members must observe the Code of Conduct (interim) which was adopted by the council on 9th July 2012 and any subsequent amendment thereof a copy of which is annexed to these Standing Orders.

a. No member shall at a meeting persistently disregard the ruling of the Chairman, wilfully obstruct business, or behave irregularly, offensively, improperly or in such a manner as to bring the Council into disrepute.

b. If, in the opinion of the Chairman, a member has broken the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Order, the Chairman shall express that opinion to the Council and thereafter any member may move that the member named be no longer heard or that the member named do leave the meeting, and the motion if seconded, shall be put forthwith and without discussion. If a member reasonably believes another member is in breach of the code of conduct, that member is under duty to report the breach to the Standards Board.

c. If either of the motions in paragraph (b) is disobeyed the Chairman may adjourn the meeting or take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce them.

Right of Reply

If an amendment is proposed the mover of the amendment shall be entitled to reply immediately before the amendment is put to the vote. Discussions and Resolutions Affecting Employees of the Council

37. If at a meeting there arises any question relating to the appointment, conduct, promotion, dismissal, salary or conditions of service, of any person employed by the Council, it shall not be considered until the Council or committee (as the case may be) has decided whether or not the public shall be excluded (see Standing Order no 68).

Resolutions on Expenditure

38. Any resolution (which is moved otherwise than a pursuance of recommendation of the Finance Committee or of another committee after recommendation by the Finance Committee) and which, if carried, would, in the opinion of the Chairman, substantially increase the expenditure upon any service which is under the management of the Council or reduce the revenue at the disposal of any committee, or which involve capital expenditure, shall, when proposed and seconded, stand adjourned without discussion to the next ordinary meeting of the Council, and any committee affected by it shall consider whether it desires to report thereon (and the Finance Committee shall report on the financial aspects of the matters).
